

Now is the time to stop indiscriminate killing for the mere pleasure of killing. What is almost as bad is the reward system that supports unwarranted violence and the teaching of it to new generations. Stop it yesterday. I can't even understand how this could be legal in the first place. There is no sport—its perverted cruelty.

Leslie Weigand