Re: I OPPOSE [HB 3059] with extreme prejudice.

If an "Unlawful Assembly" is declared by law enforcement and people refuse to obey, Police "do not have the time" and or the number of Police required to "issue citations to appear."

It appears, [HB 3059] represents the criminal element's position, to overwhelm Police and clog the court system rather than being arrested and prosecuted for their unlawful conduct.

How many of the "persons cited" for failure to obey a lawful order will keep their day in court?

How many "Bench Warrants" will be issued for "failure to appear?"

What are the projected costs to the taxpayer?

What if the "person justly receiving a citation" for unlawful conduct, is not "arrested" then commits additional crimes causing injuries and lawsuits?

Respectfully submitted,
