

The statute that this bill repeals has been widely misused as a substantial impediment to freedom of speech and assembly. Repealing it is wise and just.