

I oppose this bill. we need less government and more citizens involved in caring for our forests in order to stop the huge fires. The emergency system needs totally redone. it didn't work well just like the unemployment department. we need new people in charge that have common sense.