

In the State of Oregon, Naturopathic Physicians are considered licensed primary care providers and should therefore be treated equally by insurance companies when billing for the same services as MD's, DO's, NP's, PA's, and DC's within their scope of practice.