

I ask for your support to phase out mink farming in Oregon. The practice is cruel and inhumane and the crowded conditions can transmit Covid-19 back to humans as well. It can also spill off into nature and be impossible to track. I ask for your support to end this cruel practice.