

I am in complete support of HB2728. Contests for killing coyotes is an inhumane form of entertainment and definitely not necessary for conservation. Coyotes are also important part of keeping our natural environment in balance. Please do all you can to see that Oregon joins other states to oppose killing these animals.