

I vehemently oppose SB832 as it another example of the continuing overreach of government into family businesses. It appears that rural Oregon is targeted for attack by the legislature.