

I STRONGLY OPPOSE

This bill contains considerably more than upgrading recycling in Oregon. It will directly impact free markets as producers are forced to comply with arbitrary guidelines and scrutiny of unelected officials in the Department of Environmental Quality. Ultimately, it may limit the products available to consumers in Oregon.