

Mink farms are not only cruel and inhumane, they pose health problems with the possibility of transmitting the COVID virus and potentially creating mutations. There is absolutely no reason to raise any animal for their fur these days. We must progress beyond cruelty.