

Minks are wild animals and aren't meant to be kept in tiny pens. They can also get COVID 19 and spread it to humans. This industry takes both animal and human lives.