

We already have existing regulations for drinking water overseen by the state's DEQ.