

I write to largely support SB 582. On the surface the bill seems like a positive step for our state. My only concern would be whether this creates a study group that either cannot get the work done on time (due to overwork from existing duties) or otherwise gets lost in the shuffle of state government. The concept is good. Can it be easily accomplished? I leave this to your more informed discussion and decision. Thank you.