

I STRONGLY OPPOSE

This is an attempt to allow a lesser sentence and overturn the twice voter approved Measure 11.

For victims trying to move on and heal from abuse, letting their abusers off with lesser sentences is unconscionable. Eight of the nine female prosecutors in Oregon issued a letter outlining how dangerous bills gutting Measure 11 in the legislature would cause more victims to suffer in silence.