

To whom it may concern,
I've worked on a mink farm and can personally attest that these animals are well taken care of from time of birth to day of harvest.
This bill is nothing more than a government over reach . If allowed will target other ranchers . Go work on a mink ranch and find out before you assume what goes on there .