

A new tax on timber will not restore lost jobs. Nor is it needed to fund the state. It will hurt small businesses already hurting after COVID and the wild fires. This is a ridiculous time to consider this and will only hurt our timber communities even more.