

I support this bill because it seems balanced and fair. Oregon needs better balanced rules and practices governing the timber industry. Extraction fees just make sense for all of us.