

It is well-established that the Portland metro area suffers from poor air quality that is directly connected with vehicle emissions, AND that the state has more "dirty" vehicles driving through it than neighboring states. More than two decades have passed since fees for emission testing were raised. $4 is a modest semi-annual increase that is affordable by everyone. Let's do the right thing and keep this important emissions program sufficiently funded.