

I support everyone's right to rest, as specifically outlined in this bill. I support decriminalizing people without homes. This is the decent thing to do. Please support treating other human beings like human beings. Thank you.