

It makes no sense to evict the homeless from one place because the homeless have nowhere else to go. This eviction just exacerbates their situation, and is cruel. Work on solving the problem of offering a place to live first, or else we're just barbaians, blinding ourselves to the suffering of others.