

I am a person with disabilities. I have used the services of Aging and People with Disabilities and Vocational Rehabilitation. I currently use these services and they need to be continually funded.

There also needs to be training for individuals that work with people with disabilities in these agencies. When you have a disability it can make it challenging to get a job maintain a job or even figure out how to work within the system. I need these agencies to assist me.