

Chair Dembrow and members of the committee.

The concept of SB 617 is good except for the fact that it does not recognize other minorities that have made great contributions over the last 300 years in the United States.

Thank you