

I have been a resident of Oregon my entire life and am heavily against any and all hunting contest. I grew up in a family of hunters and still hunt to this day. But there are no ethics or sportsmanship in hunting contests. I believe we need to start setting a responsible example for the generations to come. And that example should start here and now.