

There is no better investment that a community can conceivably make than in its education. We will have not only a skilled workforce but responsible and informed citizens, capable of thinking well about our community and contributing to its betterment. The state university is indispensable to this project. Support it, endow it, invest in it, pay for it; and the returns will make Oregon wealthier and happier. Please pass the the Public University Support Fund and fund the Oregon Opportunity Grant.