

We urgently ask the state to be part of our efforts to save or rebuild the Portland Children's Museum. After 75 years its closure was announced with no warning. We would like to ensure funds are available to continue this vital and unique organization.