

I support this bill and its intention to close a loophole law enforcement officers use to suggest their force is justified. It is vitally important we protect our freedom to peacefully - and with a feeling of safety in our own communities - exercise our right to protest injustice when we see it.