

We should all have the right to feel safe in our public spaces and it is a reasonable compromise to allow locals to make decisions on whether to allow firearm carry.