

I OPPOSE

Places an undue burden on school faculties and administrations. Such bias displays should be used for training experiences to be a meaningful lesson and not disciplinary excuses. One size does not fit all situation. Policy and procedures for any incidents of bullying based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, age or disability is already covered by law.