

I live in Salem and love using our parks as a place for my family to recreate. I have young children and we feel threatened when we see members of the Proud Boys bearing firearms in the places we love to play.