

You sit up there in your glass houses and think you know what's best for us. But you think all is well until your friends (antifa, BLM) come breaking and assaulting you... what are you gonna do when that happens to you? Please people don't make the people of this fine state become divided. We have a CONSTITUTION let's live by it... we have a right to bear arms and protect ourselves as well as property.