

I strongly oppose this bill and the amendments, gun owners are the most law abiding class of people and you are trying to strip our rights and property from us for a feel good against the tiny tiny amount of crazy people that choose to use guns to commit crimes. You wouldn't ban cars because of a handful of drunk drivers, which by the way they are way more of than not shootings every year. Please stop taking our rights and vote no on this bill.