

Having this option for my son is amazing. When he attended in person school, he couldn't focus due to too many kids in the classroom misbehaving. Since learning at home, he had excelled in math and is doing much better in language arts. Thank you for taking all our stories into consideration.

Terra Cox