

As a tribally enrolled member of a Federally recognized tribe I fully support our children wearing items that are significant to our culture and traditions.