

I support SB 554. We have a serious, growing problem of gun violence in our country, including rising rates of suicides involving guns by young people. We need to take more action, not less, if we want to make our communities safer.