

I urge a YES vote on this bill. We need to save our cinemas, especially the small locally owned ones. We need to help them weather the pandemic until things can get back to normal, which still may take a while. Watching movies with others in a darkened theater on a big screen is a special experience we must save.