

I STRONGLY OPPOSE

Changing the date to purchase zero-emission vehicles up four years to 2025 will have the effect of driving up costs to the state for acquisition and maintenance of these vehicles. It will cost taxpayers for no good reason..