

Remote access help democratize our states political process. Folks who couldn't otherwise drive to the capitol during the middle of a work day will have a higher likelihood of being able to attend, listen in, and express their values to their legislators!