

Districts should always retain the best and most qualified teachers, it should always be about merit. To retain a teacher purely to achieve a desired "diversity ratio" is absolutely discriminatory.