

Investors will skip Oregon for more favorable investment States. With the riot situation in Portland we do not need more negativity.