

I support the change to treat canine sports the same as equine sports with regards to arenas and farm buildings. The use and design of the dog training facilities closely mirrors what horse properties experience and they deserve the same exemptions. A horse clinic or competition on farm use land is the same as a dog clinic or competition. Classes, etc are also the same. I see no reason not to expand the exemption to include dog sports.