

My name is Nhi Nguyen and I own The Boiling Bowl restaurant business in Portland. It's an understatement to say that the last year has been difficult. Passing HB 2966A, and extending the repayment period for back rent is a small, but significant step that the legislature could take in support of small business owners like me.