

I strongly oppose this bill.

School boards should have the final say. they are the voice for the parents. School safety officers are needed. this limits the local control and takes about the parents voice.