Healthcare is a human right, establishment of universal healthcare will save the lives of countless Oregonians and extend and increase the quality of life for countless more. Lowering the currently exorbitant cost of healthcare will allow citizens to pay off debt and invest in their communities, and allow so many to go back to work or to back to school. The postivie ripple effects of this can't be overstated.