

Dealing with a chronic illness myself I have consistently had my insurance go in and out because im right over the line for OHP. When my lapse in insurance occurs im left with next to no resources and still have to carry on with my life. This would make a massive difference to those who need care year round, and I am in full support!