

Increasing labor and overhead expenses are creating hardships for small businesses, including liquor store operators. This bill updates compensation taking that into account.