

I support HB2333. I feel it's essential to be accountable to our children in the care of the state. The state should be held accountable for knowing and reporting how many of our children in the states care on are psychiatric drugs.