

Not enough information presented for HB2788. DOJ General Counsel takes on a huge undertaking in representing state government. Could the DOJ absorb the huge department of the general counsel expenditures by way of the state budget share DOJ receives for operating funds?