

SJR 12 Proposes amendment to Oregon Constitution establishing obligation of state to ensure every resident of state access to cost-effective, clinically appropriate and affordable health care. This is the very path that Oregon was on just before Obama's Affordable Care Act was passed. It is the right path. Just like education, health care is vital to a productive and engaged citizenry. This is also the right time to move ahead on this long sought after legislation.