

I oppose this measure. While I believe the press has a right to report factual news, I do not see the need of reporting it as it happens. Unfortunately, to many news people just want to sensationalize what is happening, which brings spectators to the incident. That is not needed at emergency or police activity scenes. Please vote no on this measure.