

Reiki is a modality of alternative well-being care that is practiced by many and which brings relief to many. It is gentle and non-invasive --and in no way can it do harm. Please do not require that it be licensed. That would be a disservice to the many recipients who benefit from it.